FOREWORD

On April 4, 1930, the representatives of more than thirty family associations and genealogical societies near Boston met and founded the Federation of American Family Associations.

The objects of the Federation are, first, to enable the various family associations to coöperate with the idea of giving mutual aid in increasing interest in family associations and their possibilities; and, secondly, to establish a central bureau where information may be freely obtained regarding family associations now in existence, the names of their officers, the dates and locations of their meetings, and the nature of any publications which they may issue.

Membership in the Federation is open to any American family group. It is in no way a commercial organization and undertakes no genealogical research. It is made up of family associations which are not expecting any financial benefit but who hope that they may render an unselfish service in assisting individuals seeking the acquaintance of other members of their clan to locate their family organizations; to arouse family associations to a better realization of their wider genealogical and patriotic opportunity; and to forward the family association movement in general.

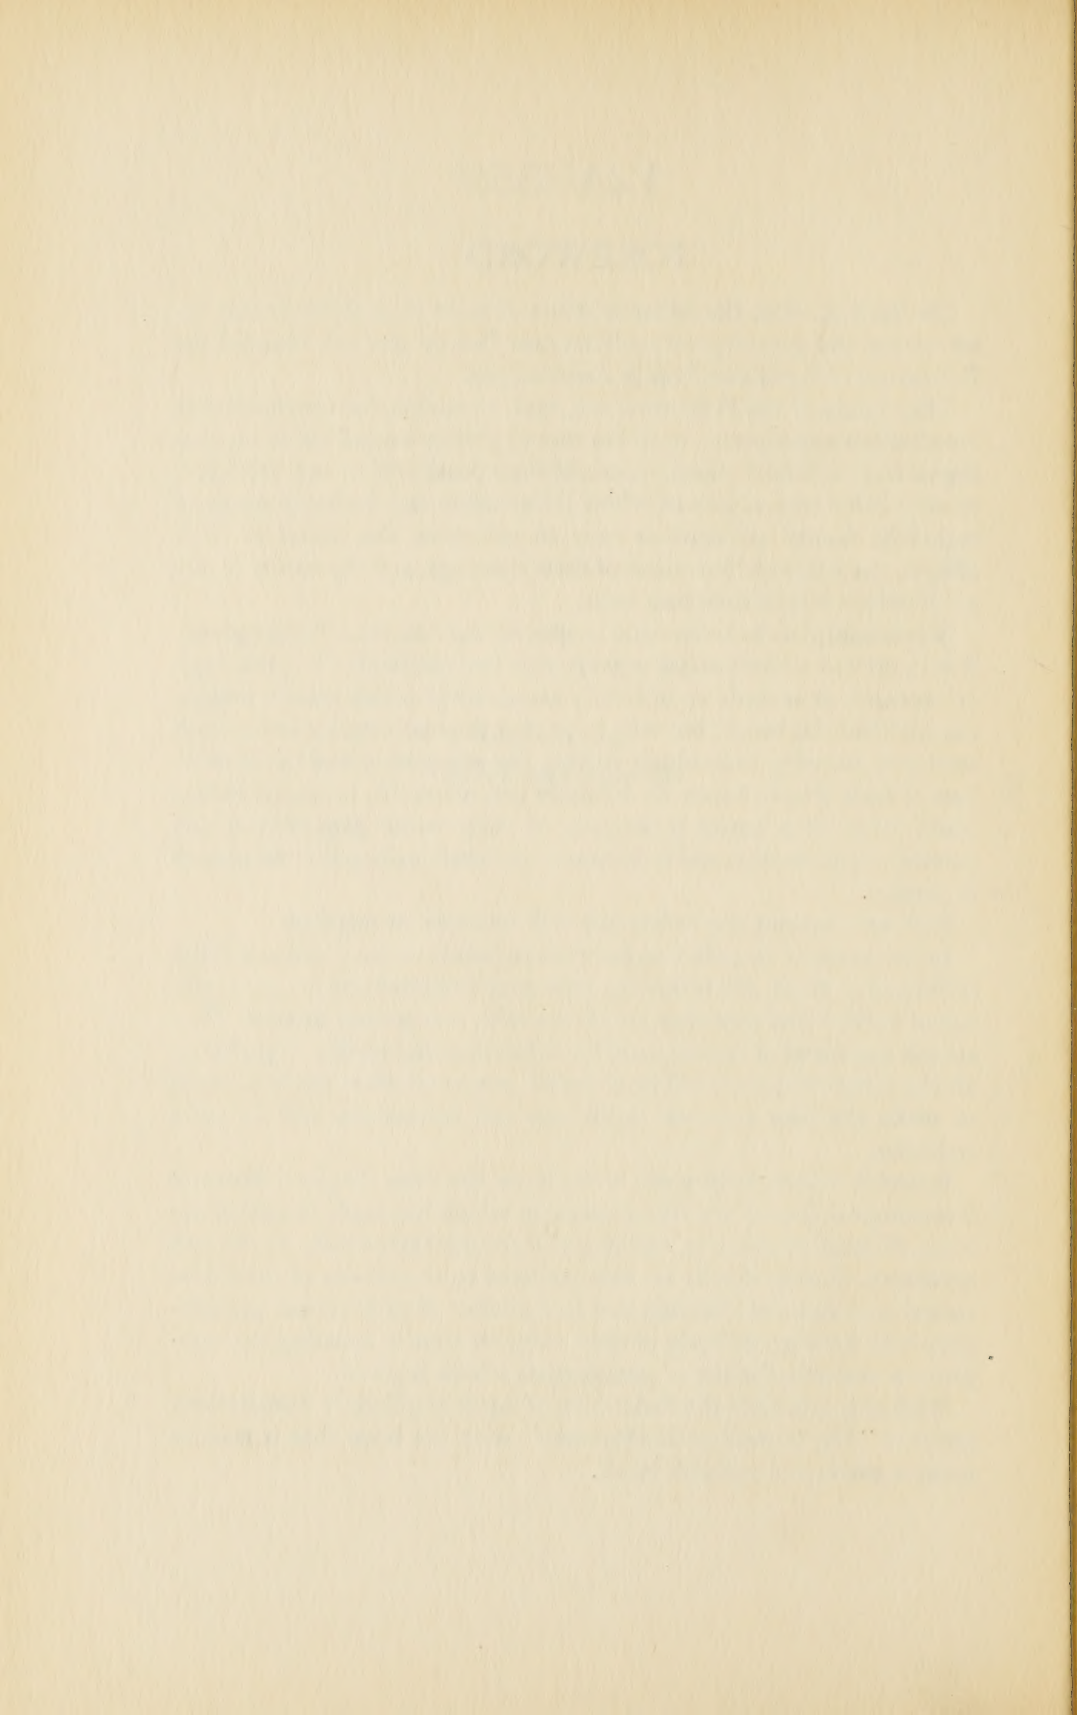

Such associations the Federation will welcome as members.

In pursuance of its policy to be of use to family associations and those interested in them, the following lists were compiled and are now published in the belief that they are of real value and general interest. They are not put forward as complete, for it has been impossible to gather in all the names which should be included, but a real effort has been made to make the lists accurate. Additions and corrections will be most welcome.

Grateful acknowledgement is made to the New England Historic Genealogical Society for its coöperation which has made the existence of the Federation possible, and to its officers for their kindly advice and assistance. Sincere thanks are also tendered to the officers of other historical societies and libraries, and to a number of professional genealogists who have given freely of their valuable time in assisting the compiler to assemble the list of genealogists which is given.

With this preamble the Federation of American Family Associations presents "The Genealogical Directory" with the hope that it may be found a useful and valuable book.

LIBRARIES

HAVING GENEALOGICAL DEPARTMENTS OR COLLECTIONS

NOTE

It should be remembered that the province of a library is to provide books and a place where people may read them. For some time libraries generally made an effort to answer simple questions dealing with genealogy and local history, but the steadily increasing demand has made it impossible to continue the practice. To do so would make it necessary to increase the staff or to lay aside regular work.

The most that a library should be expected to do is to indicate sources of information. The Federation therefore suggests that if you cannot undertake research work yourself, you should employ a professional genealogist, rather than ask assistance from a library.

Unless otherwise stated libraries are closed Sunday.

PROFESSIONAL GENEALOGISTS

In compiling this list the Federation has endeavored to make sure that those included are competent. It should be clearly understood, however, that the list is not presented as a complete one. Beyond a doubt there are many whose names do not appear, who are fully qualified to undertake any commission, but of whose abilities we have not been informed. The Federation does not in any way assume responsibility for the work of the genealogists named. We will welcome suggestions as to additions or corrections.

The HISTORY of the BRIGHAM FAMILY

Volume One, published in 1907, contains 636 pages, with 64 pages of illustrations. Price, $6.

Volume Two, published in 1927, contains 300 pages and 21 pages of illustrations, including four large group pictures of the reunions of the Brigham Family. Price, $4.

The second volume does not duplicate the first but contains historical chapters and genealogical data brought down to 1927; and the pamphlets contain more. Tracing of families can only be done through the first volume, the second reveals the English origin of our branch of Brighams.

COOLIDGE GENEALOGY

"Descendants of John and Mary Coolidge of Watertown, Mass., 1630"

By EMMA DOWNING COOLIDGE

Author of "The Dreamer," "At the King's Pleasure," and other books

4 Pembroke Street, Newton, Massachusetts

A most interesting and absorbing record of this family in the United States during 300 years. The Boston Herald says, "The volume is one of the most important that have grown out of the 1930 Tercentennial . . . a stupendous undertaking done supremely well."

418 pages

5 illustrations

$10 a copy

(Special rates to Coolidge Descendants)

PHOTOGRAVURE ILLUSTRATIONS FOR GENEALOGIES

If you will examine the frontispiece to this volume which is a photogravure you will see that it has perfection of modelling — richness of shadows — smoothness of tones — and pure high-lights.

These qualities which make a beautiful print are not to be found together in any other method of reproduction.

For reproducing views, old documents, maps, and similar originals for illustrations for genealogies, histories, etc., photogravure is unequalled.

May we send you further information, samples, and prices?
